

February 16th 2008

Press Release: Immediate release

Minister Micheál Martin Opens Berkley Recruitments €1.4m Offices in Cork

Minister Micheál Martin officiated the opening of Berkley Recruitment Groups new offices, on the Carrigrohane Straight, Cork. The offices are a landmark building on the Carrigrohane Straight, with the building dating back to the 1850's.

Berkley are in the 8th year in Cork and purchased the site almost 3 ½ years ago, the building is state of the art, with full 3rd Generation wiring and wireless set ups, under floor heating, walnut panelled rooms, and showers for employees.

Over 60 Friends, Clients and candidates attended the event.

Talking at the opening, the Minister highlighted the "high standards that Berkley deliver to the market place", and acknowledged "the considerable contribution by Berkley in supporting IDA projects for ongoing investment targets".

Commenting on the event, Fergal Brosnan Director, "we are delighted with the new offices, we hope our investment is a reflection of our high standards and professionalism in our service."

"We also welcome the upcoming legislation that we hope will further regulate the industry, as outlined by the minister today, the highest standards of regulation will benefit those who do work at high standards, and we would support full regulation by the department, although this may not occur immediately."

Berkley Recruitment Group are 13 years in operation and run office sin Dublin and Cork. Berkley employ 19 people and see this number rising to 28 this year. Berkley Specialise in the IT, Pharmaceutical and Sales industries.

For further details and comments, please contact
Fergal Brosnan
Director

Tel: 021 4289628
Mob: 087 8575103