

Have you got the mettle for metal?

Supplier Relationship Manager

A leading Irish manufacturer seeks a Supplier Relationship Manager for an extremely varied and unusual role. It involves the promotion of effective strategies for maintaining and developing relationships with existing and potential suppliers in the sourcing of raw materials for the non-ferrous metals industry. Industry knowledge would be an advantage, although training will be given to the right person for this excellent opportunity. The position is Dublin-based with UK travel involved.

The company is part of a multinational group and specialises in the supply of metals to the construction industry. You will be someone ideally with 5 to 10 years' purchasing, sales and account management experience in the construction industry or related area and, have a proven track record in a business-to-business environment. You will also have a mature outlook and good financial and negotiation skills. Commensurate with this superb position is a highly competitive salary that includes a comprehensive bonus and expenses package.
